After such as long journey of both which are having the same where we are into business (Pain) , or we are in Patience ? So we are having this patience first as we have seen here which is kind of as per the lines and not with ignorance / ego / anything which kills .

So , yeah it was finally has been seen what Is the guidance and confirmation .

It is Guidance – Confirmation .

It is Mis-Guidance – Confused.

So it is what as it is explicit what has been revealed and it is not learn actually !

Learning will come only by the study alone but here it is what it says , choosen and have given it !

So this kind of thinking will come only when we are with our own thinking , of what is what !

So it is kind that we are with it and we remain in it !

The wolf/Dogs/pigs their behaviour is explicit of what it is as it is given and told . So it comes by direct not just some one said or something !

So it is kind of we know who keep the word and who has been with god !

All the time it is confirmed as it is , you know where I am going (submitting =surrendering to god) where I am reaching !

You know the name of the father , for that father is in you and in me and we are in one !

So it is where we are in one ... father is in each one of us and where we have been with the father of lies just like claiming of hypocrisy and also all the things which related to match to relation of this creation and as it is this was told as it is .

This is kind of we have to be with that what we know and we will remain in it alone.

We keep known it and we been in it alone !

We know all the things and we will never worship such things what we don't know to us and we know we whom to be with and we whom to keep with .
This is kind of from the starting we know them (all things which made or became as it is worshiping this creation) I am asecding to the father and your fahter and my god and your god !

Oh , fahter ? Yes fahter which is my god and your god !

God almighty is that who it is !

So It is explicit there mentioned about that and there is no one restrict that on food or what ever. The one who does which worhsipper of the creation and god so loved that world and which he has sent his one and only son (servatn) to the world and who ever believe in that also who does that same what has been given and that's done and it si what who is actually will be back to him again and will be in it working with the same almighty again !

So it is kind of no worries all the tiem and who are with the Glorious Revelation / who are with the Submission and who are with the same as it is been with that one who is saved and that is that one who is in actual truth !

So it depends on us, does we are been with it or not !

Who donot wants to take now they will take or really they don't want and we are been what we have we have to be with It and that is enough of that we are been in it !

or the father of truth (what was spoken)

Guidance Confirmation / not a Misguided Confusion !

It is basically yes Guidacne Confirmation as it is !

This is kind of we are having it and yes we are having it as It is !
